Become a Volunteer Animal Disaster Service Worker!

Step 1: Attend NERT Training

Taking NERT is a required step to become an Animal Disaster Service Worker.
Cost: Free!

To register, please go to the website for "Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT)" www.sfgov.org/sfnert , or call the NERT Training Registration Line at 415-970-2024.

Step 2: Attend Disaster Animal Response Training*

DART is a 4-session training course specifically about disaster animal response training. The course is led by the SFDPCA and is designed for NERT graduates who want to be involved in helping animals after a disaster. In the event of emergency, DPCA-certified volunteers will assist with helping triage injured animals and assisting in temporary animal shelters. You must attend all 4 sessions to become certified as an Animal Disaster Service Worker.
