E.S.E.R. BOND 2020 NFS – Updates through December 2024

Division of Training – Formerly “Fire Training Facility” (Scott Moran, San Francisco Public Works)

Budget: $275M

Phase: Design (Design Development)

Schedule:

- Estimated Start of Construction – Fall 2025
- Estimated Substantial Completion – Fall 2028

Highlights:

- SFFD provided responses on 12/13/24 to SF Planning’s list of questions that were received on 11/22/24, related to proposed fire training activities and the updated environmental assessment for smoke emissions. The answers to these questions will help Planning complete their evaluation of the new data and whether to consider modifying one of the mitigation measures in CEQA.
- The draft updated geotechnical report, based on the recent additional 23 soil borings, was released on 12/13/24 to help support structural and civil engineering efforts as part of Design Development. The report helped further define some of the existing underground conditions, including a previously unidentified former bay inlet along the west side of the site which includes additional bay mud deposits. Information in this new report may require additional design considerations for structural and civil engineering. The final report is due 1/17/25.

- The RFQP for CMGC Services is still in process. During the month of December, Addendum 1 was released with 50% Design Development drawings also being provided to potential bidders. Proposals are due on 1/14/25. After proposal evaluations, interviews, notification of the successful candidate, and agreement negotiations are completed, the goal is to go before the Public Works Commission in mid-March 2025 for their formal approval of the CMGC agreement. Final notice to proceed for the successful CMGC is anticipated to be in early- to mid-April 2025, just as the project is beginning the Construction Documents phase of design.
- During the month of December, the options for exterior building materials were further explored to try and address concerns regarding ease of cleaning and repair for graffiti and vandalism. A variety of building material samples were sent to DPW's BBR group (Bureau of Building Repair – which handles graffiti removal on all City owned buildings). BBR created several mock-ups, and the entire team visited their shop to observe the performance of the various materials. As previously assumed, brick did not perform well, even with two different anti-graffiti coatings. The best performing material was large format porcelain panels (Crossville), which was easier to clean and was resistant to scratching and gouging with a tool. Phenolic panels (Trespa) also performed well. The design team is further developing designs for the exterior to use one or both of these materials in a way that is reminiscent of brick in color and layout. The new designs are being estimated to confirm budget impact for this change in materials. At the end of Design Development (late-February, early-March), the updated designs will be presented to the Civic Design Review committee for their review.
- Planning and the City Attorney's Office (CAT) have determined that only Planning Code Map Amendments (not Planning Code Text and Map Amendments) will be required for the zoning changes on the site. Draft legislative language has been provided by CAT for two Planning Code Map Amendments: one for the zoning change of some parcels from PDR-2 (Production, Distribution, Repair) to P (Public); one for the bulk and height change from 40/X (40' height) to 90/X (90' height). These changes are required to meet the planned uses on the site and proposed building heights (84' training tower – tallest building). Additionally, CAT is working on legislative language for the vacation of 3 paper streets (unbuilt City roads) so that they can be incorporated into the overall site. The goal is to introduce these legislative items in January (or February) 2025. Supervisor Walton has agreed to introduce these items at a future Board of Supervisors meeting. This would start the clock on the legislative process, which will include public hearings and review by the Planning Commission.

December 2024

December PIO Incidents: 179	Interviews: 165	Events: 90
-----------------------------	-----------------	------------

Operations:

The PIO Office is committed to providing internal and external information as needed. In addition to our department, the PIO office engages with the public and external public safety and government entities daily to ensure the safety of our members and the public we serve.

Operations:

December was an opportunity for the training and preparation of the PIO office to come into play during two significant, first-of-their-kind regional emergencies. The first was on December 5th, when a Tsunami Warning was issued for the Northern California coast due to an offshore earthquake. The preparation of crisis messaging and a clear operations document allowed emergency messaging and instructions to be dispersed via social and traditional media before other City agencies had a chance to gather their messaging. Had this been an actual Tsunami evacuation, this preparation bought over 30 minutes of notice and preparation time for residents and visitors.

Second, a Tornado Warning was issued in the early hours of December 14th, which again was addressed using prepared messaging following a clear operations plan.

Events and Community Engagement:

Holiday Decorations Contest—Station 18 won the Bomberos-sponsored Holiday Station Decoration Contest, reimagining extensive decorating from the 1930s and 40s. Many communities' social accounts covered the contest, including the SF Standard, which posted a map of all stations participating as part of their “Holiday Lights of San Francisco” piece shortly before the Christmas Holiday. This event brings ‘Community outreach’ to each station that participates and strengthens the bond between Public Safety and the communities we serve. It is also fun.

The PIO Office hosted a “Meet your PIO” event at Red Bay Coffee, which included public safety PIOs from local agencies and media from all over the Bay Area. Each reporter was given a prepared thumb drive of SFFD images and media to use as a B-roll or images for stories. This event facilitated networking between regional PIO teams and the media we serve. We are the only Pio agency in California to hold such an event.

Training:

Mayor London Breed recognized the SFFD PIO for its work during and before the Tsunami and Tornado and for becoming the first 24-hour PIO shop in Northern California. FEMA also recognized members for completing the required training to work toward California Specialist Credentialing for Public Information Officers. All PIO members received a letter from FEMA.

Members continue seeking training opportunities to serve the SFFD and the community better.

It is important to note that in December 2024, two incidents of worldwide attention featured the SFFD PIO as the primary Public Information Officer: The December 5th Tsunami Warning and the December 14th Tornado Warning. Both incidents featured the SFFD PIO on multiple national channels and briefly extended the reach of messaging on websites and news channels worldwide. Any spike in viewership or audience reach will likely return to normal expected levels in January, pending no additional large-scale disaster warnings.
