San Francisco Fire Department
Conducting High Rise Drill

MEDIA OPPORTUNITY**

On Sunday, August 12, 2012, the San Francisco Fire Department will be conducting two large-scale High Rise Drills at 275 Battery Street. Both drills, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, will include 275 Battery St. building management, the Building Owners and Management Association (BOMA), Neighborhood Emergency Response Teams (NERT), the SFFD Fire Reserves and the number of Fire Department apparatus that would typically respond to a 3 Alarm fire.

There will be a designated Fire Department Official at the Media Observation Location dedicated to media representatives for the duration of each drill.

STAGING AREA FOR MEDIA VEHICLES: Front St. @ Sacramento St.

MEDIA OBSERVATION LOCATION: Corner of Sacramento St. & Battery St.

MORNING DRILL BEGINS AT 9:30 AM

AFTERNOON DRILL BEGINS AT 1:30 PM
